Fifty-fifth session
Item 116 (b) of the provisional agenda*
Human rights questions: human rights questions, including alternative approaches for improving the effective enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms

Human rights and unilateral coercive measures

Note by the Secretariat

1. In its resolution 54/172, paragraph 7, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit an analytical report on human rights and unilateral coercive measures to the Assembly at its fifty-fifth session. Pursuant to that request, notes verbales were sent to Member States on 30 May 2000, inviting them to provide comments and information by 30 June 2000.

2. No responses have been received. Any information from Governments on this question will be included in an addendum to this note.

* A/55/150.

 In accordance with General Assembly resolution 54/248, sect. C, para. 1, this note is being submitted on 21 July 2000 so as to include as much updated information as possible.
